From the Principal

Hi everyone, welcome to the second week of Term 2. I hope that you have all had a wonderful week. Please remember that as the weather cools down students will need to gradually transition to wearing their winter uniforms. Even though some days are still quite mild please encourage your children to take their bomber jackets along just in case.

As members of St Peters Lutheran school community, you will be invited to participate in our St Peter's Lutheran School, 'School Culture Survey'

We are in the process of charting our school's future and your feedback in relation to certain functions in our school will help shape our journey. This survey is not compulsory, and your responses will be completely anonymous.

We really appreciate you taking the time to invest in our school and our future.

You will over the coming days receive a link via email which you simply click on and follow the instructions. It is estimated that the survey will take approximately 15-20 minutes.

Last Friday was our Cross-Country carnival held here at school. Thank you to all those Parents and caregivers that were able to come along and support your children. Our students have been training hard each week for the past term for this active event and it was obvious that it helped our students prepare. Thank you once again to our House and School Captains who set a wonderful example of persistence and focus.

Congratulations to those senior students that achieved a time enabling them to go onto the Kaniva Cross Country next Monday. These students were, Jaxon Bourke Finn, Dane Paech, Jasper Ward, Ethan King, Bridgette King and Chelsea Elliot. Well done to these boys and girls for really pushing themselves and achieving this pleasing result.

On Tuesday our year 4,5 and 6 students travelled by bus to Nhill Lutheran Primary School. It was a 'Leadership' day which involved group activities, hands on tasks and mixing with students from Holy Trinity Lutheran College and Nhill Lutheran School. Emma Graetz from the LEA was the leader for the day. A huge thank you to Mr Prenzler and Nhill Lutheran for hosting this valuable day for our senior students. The feedback I received from staff and students was very positive.

Have a safe and Blessed weekend,

Tim Reimann

Devotional Thoughts

Recognition

by Milton Eckermann

You are my God, and I will give thanks to you; you are my God, I will extol you (Psalm 118:28).

Read Psalm 118:14–29

In recent times, some celebrities in our country have passed on or completed a journey. There has been incredible admiration and celebration of their achievements in their particular avenues of life. I may have missed it, but I did not hear any mention of thanks to God. There have also been many reports about the lives of leaders in our community, with ho-hum references to their Christianity that are 'by the way' and not really important or necessary.

Why are we so reluctant to talk about God in public or give praise to him for what he has given us? Do we fear that if we do it, we might be ridiculed, or aren't we sure about what he has done? We can say with certainty that we are going to live with God now and into eternity. Yes, really! He has saved us for that. Knowing that, we can strive to live daily giving thanks, celebrating his greatness and proclaiming his goodness.

To many, that might seem 'sappy', and it's not really warranted because look what we have achieved. But after that, after all the accolades, when time has taken over, guess who's still here? Yes, God is. He is here now with us, and he's also where we are going, ready and prepared. Let's not be shy. Let's start the festival and march around the altar because the Lord is good, and his love is eternal.

I know you, God, and I want to be part of your team. Amen.
